

ANNUAL REPORT (2019 – 20)

Sri Aurobindo College of Commerce and Management has been indomitably following the ideals, morals and ethics of Integral Education as sagaciously envisaged by Sri Aurobindo and the Divine Mother which aims at structuring and nurturing an integrated and incorporated personality which is a harmonious equilibrium of different elements that constitute our being. It has been a constant effort of this shrine of learning to develop students in both curricular and co-curricular areas. The journey of a thousand miles always begins with a single step. Padma Bhushan Sh. S.P. Oswal took the first step and the most remarkable journey started in the form of SACCM in the year 2004. Every institute has a pilgrimage of its own but ours' shrine in the name of Sri Aurobindo, is a pilgrimage studded with the rarest of the rare milestones. Blessings of the Mother and Sri Aurobindo, vision and guidance of the leaders, diligence of the staff members and industry of the students have always injected the zeal for ceaseless work. Following segments of Annual Report will bring to light the various endeavours taken and accolades attained during the year which corroborate our steady and sturdy march towards the realization of mission of the institution.

SACCM's JOURNEY OF IMPARTING INTEGRAL EDUCATION (SESSION 2019-20):

SACCM Development Model confirms the ideology which is based on Integral Education that emphasizes on multidimensional development like physical, moral, spiritual etc. Various activities carried out and achievements gained during the year substantiate the college's effort in this pursuit.

INDUCTION PROGRAM FOR FRESH ENTRANTS IN SACCM

In order to apprise the newly admitted students of B.Com and BBA first semester for the session 2019-20, the college organized a formal 'Induction Programme' on July 17, 2019. The programme was scheduled in three sessions. The students were briefed about the college rules and regulations regarding examination, leaves, attendance, discipline, assessment & evaluation etc. Through a Power Point presentation, students were also toured through various inter and intra college activities conducted by the college. Previous years' University merit rank holders shared their own experiences about attaining meritorious positions and motivated the freshers to take the baton of success forward. The successful Alumni of SACCM were also invited to share their success stories and the contributions made by the college to induct self-confidence and moral values into them to prepare them well for their future endeavours.

DR. AJAY SHARMA ASSUMES THE RESPONSIBILITY OF SACCM'S PRINCIPAL

Dr. Ajay Sharma, an individual with meta drive, having entrepreneurial approach towards education, the one who consciously believes that a good teacher is better than a thousand priests, and who has the conscientious faith that a good educational institution is better than a million shrines, joined as Principal of Sri Aurobindo College of Commerce and Management, Ludhiana, on February 11, 2020. His out of the box thinking and run off the mill orientation towards academics is that centers of learning must stress on pragmatic, holistic, integrated and systemic approach in building, shaping and architecting young minds. Dr. Sharma, a recipient of varied State and National awards of excellence, having a vast teaching experience of 20 years, has authored a number of books, and has great many research papers to his credit. His specialisation is on GST, Finance and Taxation. He is certainly an academician to be reckoned with. SACCM welcomes Dr. Ajay, the helmsman, who plans to take the college to still higher heights.

PRINCIPAL DR. R. L. BEHL CALLS IT QUILTS

Dr. R. L. Behl, a distinguished teacher of commerce in Arya college, Ludhiana, having rendered meticulous service to education for long many years, joined as Principal, Sri Aurobindo College of Commerce and Management, on October 10, 2010. Known for his versatility, administrative skills, genial and generous temperament, and because of his dedicated devotion to the cause of education, the college earned an enviable reputation for itself. Bright and brilliant students from different parts of the state developed a longing to be a part of the reputed SACCM. Dr. Behl, during his tenure as Principal, injected in the college, variegated changes of paramount importance. Under his stewardship, the college earned 'A' grade from NAAC. His chemistry with the staff, the students and all the well wishers of the college was the most relishable fact. Because of his other family and social engagements, he decided to call quits to his active service as the Principal of the college. Thus, Dr. Behl, after having served the institution with religious determination and devotion, finally called it a day on November 06, 2019. SACCM will always remember Dr. Behl for his zeal and spiritedness for the college, and for his exemplary services to the cause of education and the educator. The college prays for his well-being in all walks of life.

DR. SUSHIL KUMAR, DIRECTOR EDUCATION, CALLS IT A DAY

Dr. Sushil Kumar, Wing Commander (retd.), joined Sri Aurobindo College of Commerce and Management, Ludhiana, as its Director Education, on February 15, 2018. Temperamentally suave, and inflexible in the maintenance of discipline, Dr. Kumar rendered invaluable service to the college in taking it to higher heights. His dedication to the college was Indubitable. He had a good rapport with the teaching fraternity and the other members of the staff. However, owing to some personal causes, he decided to call it a day. With the kind permission of the Chairman, Padma Bhushan Sh. S. P. Oswal, Dr. Shushil Kumar bade a good bye to the directorship of the college on June 09, 2020. The college wishes him good physical, mental and social health, and also prays for his well-being in all respects.

MAINTAINING THE MOMENTUM:

Other activities of the college which were carried out during the current session also held the momentum of Integral Education:

FOR ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE:

Sri Aurobindo College of Commerce and Management always strives to function in the best interest of students.

Short Term Courses:

The speaker told the students about various schemes like Export Promotion Capital Goods Scheme, duty drawback and also about different government departments related to foreign trade. The resource person acquainted the audience with certain concepts like export import code (EI code), FOB, CIF, CNF etc.

SACCM INITIATES PROACTIVE STEPS TO COUNTER NEGATIVE IMPACT OF COVID 19

Online classes and you tube channel: In order to abridge the education gap created during the lockdown period, the College developed its own YouTube channel, which is made available for students at the College Website. The members of faculty incorporated innovative techniques for recording their subject lectures with full zeal and fervor. Problems and queries of the students were solved through online tutorial classes via various digital platforms such as Zoom, Google classroom, Webex etc.

Meritorious Classes: Meritorious groups were formed for academically bright students so as to continue with the legacy of attaining university positions in the upcoming Panjab University Examinations. The students achieving the benchmark percentage in previous university examinations were made party to 'Achievers' Club'. Weekly assignments were given to students for improvement.

Learners' Group: On the same lines, with the objective to make the students, who didn't show up to the mark performance in the previous university exams, prepare seriously for the upcoming university exams in a structured and proper way, a proper 'Action Plan' was developed and was executed by the subject teachers individually. They were also given assignments for improvement.

SUPPLEMENTING TEACHING WITH PRACTICAL EXPOSURE THROUGH INDUSTRIAL/EDUCATIONAL VISITS:

Industrial Visits have been incorporated as a part of SACCM's endeavour to help the students in supplementing their theoretical knowledge with practical industry exposure. Various industrial visits were organized during the current academic session, the details of which are as follows:

Chokra Amrit soap company

An industrial visit to Chokra Amrit soap company was organised on 6th September, 2019 for B.com 3rd semester students. The owner of the factory Mr. Rajesh Gupta along with the employees gave a warm welcome to the students. The authorities formalised the students with the soap making process- conversion of crude oil into fatty acid and ester oil, filtration, purification, deodorization and adding of fragrances. The students then saw the ready material getting converted into soap noodles and soap cakes. The group then headed towards another unit to see bottling of mustard oil and preparation of citric acid from processed fatty acid.

Vardhman Nisshinbo Garments Ltd, Ludhiana

An industrial visit was organized to Vardhman Nisshinbo Garments Ltd, Ludhiana on 28th January, 2020 for the students of B.Com first year (section C). The company is a joint venture between Vardhman Group and Japan-based Nisshinbo Textiles Inc. They visited the manufacturing site where they observed the various stages involved in the manufacturing of a shirt.

Vardhman Spinning & General Mills

SACCM organised an industrial visit for the students of B.Com I to Vardhman Spinning & General Mills. A total of 59 students along with two faculty members visited VSGM on 28th Feb., 2020. The idea was to provide the students with the live experience of the production process of a textile mill and to acquaint them with the implementation of the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948 in a factory.

COCA COLA plant in Hoshiarpur

The college also organized an industrial visit for the students of BBA 2nd semester to the COCA COLA plant in Hoshiarpur. Thirty six students along with two faculty members visited the plant on 29 Feb, 2020. Such educational excursions not only enhance the knowledge of the students but also broaden their outlook towards the outside world.

LIBRARY AND READING ROOM

The total numbers of books in the library are 4666. Number of good reference books has been added to enrich the library collection. Library subscribed 8 newspapers, 28 journals and 6 magazines included journals of reputed publishers and management institutions like Sage, Springer and MDI. Moving in the direction of automation, college also has Web OPAC for searching the books in the library and their issuance status. An e-resource named “N-List” having vast collection of more than 31,35,000 e-books and more than 6,000 e-journals. One photocopier-printer-scanner is provided in the library for the students. College also has a separate reading room and total seating capacity of library and reading room is more than 100. Library also has an institutional repository having research papers of faculty, students’ project reports, old question papers etc.

INTER SECTION SUBJECT QUIZ (ISSQ)

Inter Section Subject Quiz is a teaching pedagogy which aims at instilling the habit of regular studies and peer tutoring among the students.

In this session as well the ISSQ was conducted simultaneously for B.Com V, III and I semesters and for BBA V, III and I semesters on 4th, 5th and 6th November, 2019 respectively. For this, the students were divided into three groups according to their academic performance. Then teams were formed by including team members of different academic caliber. Each team included three participants. In case of B.Com, two teams from each section participated. Total of six teams from each semester of B.Com participated. Likewise, four teams in case of BBA from each semester participated. As it was an Inter Section Quiz event, it created a sense of competitive spirit among the participants.

The results of B.Com ISSQ are as under:

Both of our prominent speakers enlightened the virtual audience about their journeys and the prospects and challenges that are related to the fashion industry. Both of them being authentic designers, they started out real early and made it big in this competitive field with their hard work, persistence and creativity. Believing that patience is an important ingredient for the business, they guided the participants to use their knowledge about fashion hand in hand with marketing and entrepreneurship to be able to achieve fruitful results. They shed light on the fact that for a fashion brand to be known by people, it is very important to connect with the market and show the society what kind of product you are offering. According to them, having a signature line will represent you and will be quite helpful in building a tie with people who want to buy from you. Further they took up a number of queries and deeply discussed each question asked by the participants. They also stressed upon the fact that creative roadblock is never a problem because once you are done with your ideas, you can always take up an old idea and mould it into something new. According to them it is very important to be yourself, to introspect and to simply do what you feel is right. If you feel that you are going to be a part of the fashion industry and you absolutely want it as a career, you can begin today, without hesitating and finding out every opportunity to learn, grow and move ahead. A thought provoking and enriching experience, the lessons of this webinar definitely reached our aspiring young talent who participated wholesomely and unquestionably made it very interactive. The webinar was hosted by Mr. Sumit Sharma, Ms. Abheeti (Members) and Mr. Jashanpreet Singh (President) of the SACCM Alumni Association.

He shared his personal journey of how he led his team at Vardhman Special Steels Limited (VSS), and managed to use this turbulent time to their advantage amidst challenges posed by the Covid-19 pandemic and the lockdown. Keeping the morale and the motivation level of his workforce high was his first priority. So, to completely remove the fear and insecurity of no earnings or losing jobs, the management decided in principle to impose ‘no salary cuts’ at all. Additionally, to keep the employees engaged and productive even while sitting at their homes, virtual training programmes, problem solving exercises and lesson learning practices were evolved. It instilled a feeling of achievement, a sense of loyalty and also developed a sense of ownership towards the common goal of facing the crisis head on. Regular communication and connectivity with the whole team kept their spirits high. And the rewarding outcome was that post relaxation in the lock down, the team was enthusiastically ready to implement the lessons learnt and the solutions developed, thereby turning crisis into a good opportunity to win and grow even in difficult times. Mr Jain accentuated on the need to have a healthy lifestyle to build up strong immunity to face the disease. Applauding the initiatives taken by the National Leadership in the wake of Corona outbreak, he shared his optimistic view that India would definitely come out stronger out of this crisis. The webinar was very thought provoking and an enriching learning experience. The lessons on the strategies to lead during turbulent times could reach one and all as they were completely based on the personal and professional life experiences of a cognitive orator and a very successful leader, Mr Sachit Jain.

SOCIAL AND MORAL DEVELOPMENT:

AROUSING SOCIAL CONSCIENCE THROUGH NSS ACTIVITIES

The college aims at creating compassionate and socially responsive citizens. It is therefore required to arouse the social conscience of students by exposing them to realities of life and bring a change in their social perception. In order to bring this change, the NSS Unit organizes a number of activities that help in channelizing the energy and idealism of the younger generation into social pursuits.

Seven Day NSS Camp 2019 (1st to 7th June, 2019)

The NSS Unit of Sri Aurobindo College of Commerce and Management organised a 7 Day NSS Camp from 1st to 7th June 2019. Substantiating the motto of NSS “Not You But Me” the theme of the camp was “SELFLESS SERVICE.” All the activities for the camp were aligned with the basic ideologies of Selfless Service.

A total of 75 students volunteered for the camp and participated in various activities held during the 7 days. The very basic objective of organising the camp is not only to serve the society but also to help the students explore and to find a new improved version of their own selves.

DAY 1:

The day was well started by invoking the God’s Blessings through a prayer and was followed as a ritual for the six days of this camp. Great zeal and enthusiasm was witnessed amongst the NSS volunteers on the very first day of the camp. Director Education Dr. Sushil Kumar motivated the students to serve the society in a better way. Principal Dr. R. L. Behl encouraged the students to work hard selflessly for the betterment of the society. The participants were made aware of the Theme and various activities to be undertaken during the camp.

The sense of ‘I’ and ‘Mine’ easily kills the goodness in one. To make the students understand the value of teamwork an Ice Breaking Session was conducted and various committees like organising committee, record keeping committee, refreshment committee, administrative committee and cultural committee were to organize and undertake all the activities of camp.

To enrich the students regarding general safety as well as fire safety, safety officers Mr. Sanjeev Vohra and Col. Praveen from Vardhman were invited. They not only made volunteers aware about the causes but also explained safety measures to overcome this, further working of fire extinguishers and fire brigade was shown where volunteers participated with great curiosity. Cleanliness drive in the college campus was the concluding event of the day.

The activities of the second day of the camp were planned so that students should learn and embrace the feeling of compassion and devotion. The volunteers visited Govind Go Dham and Sai Dham. Both these places are full of serenity and an atmosphere that can just make all your worries vanish and giving you inner peace. The volunteers here served Pasture and Ladoos to the cows and buffaloes. All the volunteers enjoyed serving food to the cows and buffaloes. After visiting Go Dham, the journey continued for Sai Dham. The peaceful environment of Sai Dham impacted all the volunteers and they enjoyed the Aarti at the temple. Then the volunteers went to the langar hall to serve langar to all those who were present at the Sai Dham. The zeal and enthusiasm that each one of them had was really amazing.

Day 3

Continuing the zeal and enthusiasm of day 1 and day 2, day three of NSS camp began with the ritual of reciting prayer and then followed by a group photograph in the morning. The volunteers were divided into two groups . One group was given the task of beautifying NSS Corner. And the other group went to the GURU AMARDASS APAHAJ ASHRAM, village sarabha . It is a centre for the disabled persons especially those who were injured in some accidents and there is no one to look after them. The students reached there and greeted the people in the ashram.

Few recreational activities were conducted by the volunteers for them. Volunteers interacted with the disabled and under privileged members the ashram. After listening to their stories and the hard core realities of the life, volunteers came out with tears rolling out their eyes and they pledged that they will try to help the needy to every possible extent.

Volunteers also brought food from their homes and it was served in the ashram. It was a very enriching experience for the students and happiness was radiating of their faces.

Day 4

The fourth day of burgeoning 7 day NSS camp began with a pedagogic seminar on 'Myths and facts about food' with dietician Mrs Nidhi and her staff members Miss Priyanka and Miss Lovepreet from Mediways Hospital, Ludhiana, wherein they made the students acquainted with the fact that behind many food and nutrition myths, there's a kernel of truth. On the journey of uncovering truth regarding nutrition value and calorie consumption, students discovered how myths and misinformation seems far more seductive than the truth itself and the need to reveal the same.

After the enlightening session, the students visited Swami Vivekanand meditation pyramid with a view to assimilate how meditation and relaxation techniques, provide pleasure and contentment to one's mind, body and soul. At the mind boggling yet soothing session students were suggested books by acclaimed authors such as 'The Secret' and 'The Power' by Rhonda Byrne to enhance their understanding of themselves, the working of law of attraction and the benefits of practicing optimism.

The day ended at a happy note with learned minds and contented souls.

DAY 5

On the World Environment Day i.e. 5th June, 2019, NSS volunteers stepped out to enlighten the citizens of the Ludhiana city to protect the Mother Earth. Volunteers carried out "Run for Cause", under the slogan, "Be the part of the solution, not the part of the pollution." This run started from Rakh Bagh and covered the near by areas and concluded at Rakh Bagh again. The run was planned with a motive to make public aware about how can we ourselves save the Environment rather blaming others. Through the slogans of "Say No to Plastics", "Pool the conveyance", "Use different Coloured Dustbins for different type of garbage" etc. the volunteers were trying to open up the various options available to protect the environment.

The other effort made by the volunteers on the same theme was through showcasing a Nukkad Natak at Rakh Bagh in the morning . Volunteers gave splendid performance through Nukkad Natak at Rakh bagh which was based on the theme,"MAA DHARTI KI SURAKSHA". It not only enlightened the minds of the people but also made them realise that the condition of the earth is deteriorating day by day and if proper emphasis is not given, then the ultimate sufferers will be people themselves. People out there appreciated the efforts of the volunteers for this good cause and they promised that they would be carrying this drive further.

DAY 6

To Commemorate Martyrdom day of Shri Guru Arjan Dev ji volunteers on the 6th day of NSS camp organised 'Chabeel Langar' at Gurudwara Sarabha Nagar and BRS Nagar. The Chabeel was prepared by the volunteers themselves . It was very blissful to serve the people on roadside selflessly following the moto " Not Me But You". Serving the people in scorching heat provides internal peace and satisfaction.

Few students worked for NSS corner as well. Volunteers have decorated the NSS corner by utilizing scrap bottles and other waste material. The trees and the benches were painted to beautify it. An effort by the volunteers was made to make this neglected part of the campus to a centre of attraction.

DAY 7

On 7th June, 2019, the Closing Ceremony of 7 Days N.S.S. Camp was observed. Volunteers were successful in fulfilling their commitment of "Selfless Service". ## COMMUNICATION WITH PARENTS

Improvement in a student’s academic performance and conduct is possible only with the collective efforts of the College as well as the parents. We support the Parent Teacher Partnership. It is well recognized that parent-involvement in a child’s education has positive impact on the child’s academic performance. With this vision, the College organizes Parent-Teacher and Parent-Principal Meets. Also, information is passed on to the parents through the College Software on a regular basis. The meetings with the parents prove to be very fruitful because they provide the right kind of forum for collaborative thinking on the child’s academic progress and overall development.

PARENT TEACHER MEET

The College organizes the Parent Teacher Meet once in a semester for formal communication with the parents regarding the academic progress and overall conduct of the students. The parent teacher meet is normally held in the month of October/April after the respective MSTs. Parents of the students who do not give satisfactory performance in MSTs to attend the parent teacher meeting.

PARENT PRINCIPAL MEET

The College organizes 'Parent Principal Meets' with the parents of the students who achieve distinction in examinations and show potential of high accomplishment. The achievements of students get recognized this way. The feedback given to parents acts as a catalyst in the child's growth.

Bakshi, V.C., PDM university, Haryana. The seasoned administrator Dr. Vimal Rarh, Project head and Joint Director, GAD-TLC of MHRD was another Guest of Honour and speaker. Dr. Ved Prakash highlighted the transformed and the transforming face of higher education in India as different seats of higher learning have taken, and are taking to the digital tools of teaching because of the negative impact of Covid-19. He added that Indian educationists must take to the different modes of Information technology if the Indian society is to be transformed multi-dimensionally. He also landed upon the future, practical hitches and the novelties of digital education. However, at the same time, he expressed his concerns that the echelons of higher education must play a bigger and a larger role in inviting new modes and methods of teaching-learning through various tools of information and technology. Dr. Bakshi very immaculately spoke on the importance of digital education in the times to come. He also motivated the webinarians to know more and more about the different digital methods. He validated his analysis of digitization of education through various reports and data. He said that the real gap in practical education is, ‘what is learnt and what should be learnt. Our education system many a time does not challenge the minds of the students.’ Dr. Vimal Rarh enlarged upon the significance of ICT in the field of Higher education. She vehemently emphasised the idea that all shrines of higher learning must acclimatize themselves with the environment of online education. The long and the short of the webinar is that all the speakers were successful in creating a wave of transmission of digitization of Higher education in India. Dr. Ajay Sharma, Principal, presented the vote of thanks in his own distinctive and distinguished style. The attendees concomitantly stood to add new feathers to their academic selves.
